YOUR PATH TO GREAT MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT JOBS

What path will you take?

CAO & Deputy Clerk

Leadership for the organization and overall responsibility to the community it serves

Communication

Analyzing and disseminating information to and from Municipality to and from the community and Province and Country

Corporate Services Financial oversight, research, project management. Natural and cultural (forest management) health and safety, emergency planning, HR, Payroll

Community & Social Services Analysis of community needs for income, childcare, housing, and response and offering supports

Economic Development

Development and planning and strategic initiatives. Includes tourism, marketing, Agri food centre, Business consulting, land use planning, plumbing, investment attraction, settlement services Aanalysis and financial oversight, management, purchasing, accounting

Management of the long-term care home, financial management, resident support and services, nutrition management, building maintenance

Long-term
Care Home

Finance

Responsible for technology development and support analysis

Information Technology

Responsible for engineering, waste and recycling, roads operation, construction, traffic, GIS, Asset management, capital projects

Transportation Waste & Facilities

Responsible for health support for the community as well as overall health services

Paramdeics