

COMMUNITY TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT CENTRE PRESENTS:

EARLY BRAIN DEVELOPMENT: POWERING CREATIVITY & ECONOMIC GROWTH

Learn the importance of seizing the opportunities of early brain development. The first years of life are a peak period for shaping brain architecture, when more than 1 million neural connections form every second. Supporting children during this critical period of social, emotional and cognitive development builds the foundation for lifelong learning and contributes to future economic growth and stability.

28 OCTOBER 2026

COBOURG, ONTARIO

9.00 AM - 12.30 PM (ET)

Our national and international speakers and thought leaders

PROFESSOR JANET ROSE

Vice-Chancellor, Norland University of Early Childhood, a specialist early years higher education institution based in the U.K.

DR. DAN WUORI

Keynote Speaker. Founder and President of Early Childhood Policy Solutions LLC (USA)
Author of, The Daycare Myth: What We Get Wrong About Early Care and Education (and What We Should Do About It)

DR. ANABELA BONADA

Managing Director of Climate Science at Intact Centre on Climate Adaptation, University of Waterloo

PROFESSOR FRANK A. RUSSO

Professor of Psychology at Toronto Metropolitan University, Affiliate Scientist at the KITE Research Institute (Toronto Rehabilitation Institute), and Scientific Director at Smart Lab, and Co-Founder/C-Director of SingWell

DR. KIMBERLY SQUIRES

Assistant Professor, Department of Family Relations and Applied Nutrition, University of Guelph

DR. KATHRYN WALTON

Assistant Professor, Dept. of Family Relations and Applied Nutrition, and Associate Director of Guelph Family Health Study, University of Guelph

Free on-site childcare provided by Cobourg YMCA

Meet our experts and attend in person!

Best Western Plus in Cobourg, Ontario.

or join the virtual livestream from anywhere in the world!

Event details & registration:

ctdclearningplace.com/events

